

NEW TITLE

Australian Insurance Law: A First Reference

Greg Pynt

A compact and concise introduction to Australian insurance law

Australian Insurance Law: A First Reference is an exciting new title that deals with core principles of Australian insurance law. The text explains principles of insurance law in a concise manner, providing the reader with answers to fundamental insurance law questions. It is a perfect introductory text for students and practitioners new to insurance law.

Summary of Table of Contents

- Insurance: a risk transfer and loss spreading arrangement
- Dividing insurance into categories
- Formation of an insurance contract, premium, illegality, assignment and novation
- Construction of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 and of an insurance contract
- Duration of an insurance contract
- The duty of utmost good faith
- Non-disclosure and misrepresentation
- Insurable interest
- The right of a person who is not a party to an insurance contract to sue on the contract
- Causation
- The nature of an insurer's promise to indemnify
- First party insurance
- Third party (liability) insurance
- The claim
- Subrogation
- The obligations of a lawyer acting for an insured on the instructions of an insurer
- Double insurance and contribution

TO ORDER PLEASE CALL OUR FREE SALES NUMBER 1800 772 772

FOR LECTURERS: To order your inspection copy, contact your Academic Consultant (see below)

NSW	BRAD MCGRATH	02 9422 8788	brad.mcgrath@lexisnexis.com.au
QLD, NT & Northern NSW	MARIETTA GUNN	1800 678 975	marietta.gunn@lexisnexis.com.au
VIC, TAS & ACT	NICK MASON	03 9691 3397	nicholas.mason@lexisnexis.com.au
WA, SA	GALIA ADEL	08 9288 4461	galia.adel@lexisnexis.com.au

Important Features

- Concise coverage of insurance law topics as a handy first reference for students and practitioners.
- Detailed further reading references that deal with more complex issues of insurance law.
- Written by an experienced insurance law practitioner.

About the Author

Greg Pynt is a Partner at Pynt & Partners, Perth and a Visiting Fellow, Faculty of Law, University of Western Australia. He is an experienced insurance law practitioner, having practised extensively in the area in Australia and the United Kingdom.

Publication Date: October 2008

Soft Cover ISBN: 9780409325386

Price: $100.00* (incl. GST)

*Price subject to change

SOLUTIONS FOR KNOWLEDGE-DRIVEN PROFESSIONALS

Client Development Research Solutions Practice Management Litigation Services

LexisNexis®